Poway Unified School District has deemed participation in Science Olympiad activities by its coaches and students to be an extracurricular activity that augments its learning goals and objectives. As such, District liability and property insurance will respond to protect itself, its officers, employees, and authorized agents against covered losses, claims, and legal actions that may be brought against the District by third parties in connection with its participation in Science Olympiad activities. Such activities include Workshops and Tournaments, and scheduled meetings/practices that occur on campus in preparation for official Science Olympiad events.

By signing below, the school's Principal authorizes the above-named coach and student teams assembled by the coach to participate in Science Olympiad activities scheduled for the 2008-2009 school year.
